“ May your soul rest in peace. You are never forgotten, death can only take the body and not the spirit. Even though your body has gone back to the earth, your spirit is still lives within us and we feel your presence in our memories, hearts and lives.

“ My best friend my right hand man my partner in crime and the quarterback. I have a lot of good friends Josh is my very best friend. Not because we become friends in third grade we have been friends for many years because he was exactly who he is Joshua Edwards. He didn't mince words he told you his opinion point blank and I respected that and I love that about him. I can tell a thousand tales and a thousand more. He was possibly the funniest human being to ever be on the face of this Earth. And there's certainly others who would agree. In high school we laughed until we cried almost on a daily basis. I mean people don't experience the friendship that we had and he had with others who were lucky enough to know. He was there for me on different occasions and different ways I needed him, that only a brother would be. He had a pure love in his heart. I witnessed his goodness and acts of pure kindness that he did unto others through the years. I remember when we were kids a lot of the times I was without and you would always spare a couple dollars a couple cigarettes lol , he was my man like that. I wish I could have been there for Josh or in the years of late... I'll cherish your friendship forever I'll think of him everyday. His family is also the best of the best. How's the little troublemaker and they invite me over take me to church with them, at the time wasn't too happy but I was hanging out with my buddies so I was okay with it but I didn't learn some things and I was saved and I'm very thankful. I am a Christian not the very best , but nevertheless a true believer. In most part because of his family. I don't know what else to say. I could go on and on. I love him like a brother , it hurts. I'll keep his memory alive by using his unique vocabulary and terminology that was downright hilarious. For example I may throw a bonanza fest every year in his memory he loved that word but Bonanza fest lol. Life goes by quick and I hope to see you again my main man. He's an irreplaceable friend.

“ Condolences to family & friends in your loss of Josh. Although I did not personally know him, he was a friend of some of my friends who are fellow veterans. I am thankful for Josh's military service. I pray that God will comfort those grieving this loss, and I also pray that this loss will draw each of you closer to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort.
