

Dr. Juan Ricardo Eusebio Briceño Pinto

October 29, 1930 - April 1, 2025

Dr. Juan Ricardo Eusebio Briceño Pinto went to be with the Lord on April 1st, 2025.

Born on October 29th, 1930, in Cusco, Peru, to Rubén Briceño and Augusta Briceño Pinto, he pursued his dreams with the steadfast support of his devoted wife, Alinda Briceño Calle, graduating from the Universidad Nacional de Córdoba.

As a dentist, oral surgeon, and orthodontist, Dr. Briceño dedicated his life to serving others; his heart always remained open, often providing care free of charge, embodying the true spirit of service and kindness. He worked as a dentist in the mines until the mines closed. Later, he opened his practice. His passion extended beyond his practice; he found joy in singing, playing tennis, swimming, serving his community, and creating cherished memories with family and friends. While in Boston, he selflessly volunteered at Boston Hospital and participated in the Jamaica Spanish Immersion program.

He also helped Harvard students connect deeply with the language and culture he cherished. He enjoyed helping the students learn about the new advances in dentistry. Many times, he traveled through multiple buses and trains to arrive to volunteer at his older age.

While he spent much of his later life in Waltham, MA, he found comfort in moving to Salisbury, North Carolina, where his loving daughter Ana Briceño and her husband Alfredo Soto provided care and support this last year. Dr. Briceño lived an inspiring 94 years, a testament to the love and gratitude he cultivated throughout his life.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Rubén Briceño, and his son-in-law, Robert S. Renfro.

He is survived by his unwavering wife, Alinda Briceño, who faithfully stood by him, bringing him light and joy. He was immensely proud of his children—Juan Briceño (Jhone), Mirtha Renfro (Robert), Arturo Briceño, and Ana Briceño (Alfredo)—who were the apple of his eyes. His grandchildren, Helen Briceño (Rafael), Mary Renfro, Michelle Puopolo (Evan), Stefano, Tiffany, Brittany, and Gerardo, brought him endless joy. He deeply cherished his time with his great-grandson, Logan, and eagerly anticipated welcoming another great-grandchild into the world. His surviving siblings are Leonor Briceño, Yoni Briceño, and Julio Briceño.

When asked how he would like to be remembered, Dr. Briceño said, "As a great dentist, great husband, and great father." When asked about his favorite memory, he said, "There are many. It's hard to pick one." Friends and family will remember his smile, kindness, charisma, amazing singing voice, and love for giving to the community.

Papi, tu eres la canción en nuestros corazones. Gracias por todo tu amor. Te extrañaremos mucho.
