Those left to cherish her memory are her daughter, Eleanor Ray (Don) of Greensboro; sister, Frances "Frankie" Morgan (Marion) of Camden, SC; grandchildren, Teresa Sowinski (Dave), and Alan Ray (Natalie) all of Greensboro; great-grandchildren, Mark, Brian and Kevin Sowinski, Jake and Sayra Ray.

Funeral services will be conducted 3:00 PM Sunday at the First Baptist Church of Salisbury with the Rev. Dr. Kenneth Lance officiating. A committal service will be conducted 2:30 PM Sunday at Rowan Memorial Park.

The family will receive friends following the service in the church fellowship hall.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the First Baptist Church of Salisbury, 223 N. Fulton St., Salisbury, NC 28144

Tribute Wall

“ I'm sorry for your loss. I've lost a child and my father so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. But Jesus gave us a hope in the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Rosemarie##imported-begin##Rosemarie##imported-end##
