“ Julie was one of my first best friends. Even though she was younger than I was she was like my older cousin/best friend. I looked up to her and learned alot about letting go, being silly and having the most fun even when there was nowhere to go or nothing to do. We always had a blast because her personality is not the personality you are lucky enough to find very often... just one of those special people who no matter what... always made you happier when you were with them. My life will forever be blessed because she was a part of it. I regret not staying in touch. But I know we will see each other again. Rest in Paradise beautiful lady...

“ My dearest Sister Julie, You were my sweet, loveable, and spunky Sister. I will miss you so very much; in fact I already do. I look through pictures and it just breaks my heart knowing that you will never call or text me and say, "Hey Sis, How are you and Winkie doing; give me a call when you get a chance". Just writing that tears my heart out. I know that you are not suffering now from anything and you have your Angel Wings, no more hospital stays or pain. You found so hard and yet you never gave up. I love you so much Sis. Love your Big Sis Connie
