“ I will miss Karen Ann. She was a delight to talk and work with. My group cleans at IAC. She told us one time, about the lizard she had in her office and didn't want my house keeper to get scared and kill it. And loved the time the birds kept running into her window and she put stickers up so maybe they would not get hurt anymore. She was a loving person and will be missed greatly. My thoughts and prayers to her husband and father and the rest of the family.##imported-begin##Dianne Lowder##imported-end##

“ All of us in New York are shocked and saddened to hear of Karen Ann's passing. We met her at a church youth group about 30 years ago as teenagers. She was a bubbly, outgoing young lady. Sincere condolences to her husband and family. Rest well, Karen.##imported-begin##Lu Petronelli##imported-end##

“ I knew Karen from HS. We used to go ice-skating together all the time but lost touch after graduation. I heard thru FB about her passing and I am shocked. Especially knowing now that we live only 30 minutes away in NC, I wish we could have met up. She was always so upbeat and happy. So sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Linda Braun Doherty##imported-end##

“ Karen-Ann will be remembered dearly with her outgoing spunk and laughter. I us to say to her when we worked together was you are born in the wrong era of time. She loved the Doors. I now pray that the doors to heaven are wide open and angels are singing praises to welcome her home. And her Mom reaching out to her beloved daughter.##imported-begin##Martha Hayostek##imported-end##

“ Ted,
my thoughts and prayers are with you during this time.
KarenAnn was always up to take a break from work and we would chat about stuff. Her car, the dogs, you and her father. We talked about going to the Renaissance Festival together and she was going to get me into one of those "wrenches" outfits and we laughed at that thought.
She is a presence that will be missed greatly.
Warmly,
Janet Sweet

“ Teddy, I worked in the lab near Karen-Ann. She baby-sat my daughter's Yorkie one day while she ran errands in town. Karen-Ann was my Yorkie's godmother. I visited you and Karen-Ann several years ago to introduce Raskal Max to her. She was a precious lady whom I will dearly miss.##imported-begin##Andi Dye##imported-end##

“ I am in great sorrow on the passing of Karen Ann. As an associate of hers at IAC Albemarle, her vivacious attitude towards helping others with issues without comprise, leaves a major void in IT ability, and frendship.
I am in Ohio, and with the grace of God, hope that you cope with you loss, as also with so many others.##imported-begin##Richard M Erk##imported-end##

“ Karen-Ann was a special friend to me as was to so many others; so full of life with such a free, kind and gentle spirit. When I think of Karen-Ann I will always remember her love for the simpler things in life – a good conversation, her laughter, her animals, her Monte Carlos and a thunderstorm. She was one of those unique people you just liked from the minute you met her. She always managed to have that infectious smile on her face even when I visited her in the hospital her last few days. She will be missed by so many!##imported-begin##Phil Lowder##imported-end##

“ Ted,

I'm really going to miss Karen-Ann. I have always been entertained by her stories of rescuing animals.

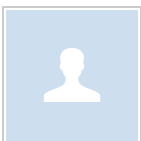

My favorite story is the time she called to advise that she would be late for work due to rescuing a lost dog at a convenience store. She took the dog home, bathed him and made a lost dog sign. When she returned to the convenience store to ask the manager about posting the "lost dog" sign to the door. The manager replied: "You can't hang up the sign, the dog is not lost. It's my dog. She then called work to advise she would be even later due to making another trip home to get the dog and return it.##imported-begin##Curtis Ragsdale##imported-end##
