“Karl & Colleen, I remember the first time I met you, you guys were visiting SD with one of your sons. You all were so nice and you even worked on my computer for awhile. It was a fun, beautiful day. It was nice to meet extended family. You both are wonderful friends and family. I am sorry God called you so soon. Our prayers go to you and your family. You will be missed Karl. Colleen keep the faith, that's all you can do. Love, you both. Always John and Diane Demers

“ I was most impressed with Karl and how eager he (and Colleen) were to customize their new home and yard here in Salisbury. His German heritage was obvious because he had every tool known to man, organized and well maintained. My new neighbor was never hesitant to smile when he heard my car horn blow in passing. He and Colleen made our routine yard sales come to life.

One day after sharing a lunch of grilled cheese sandwiches, Karl again impressed me with another one of his talents. As if I wasn't jealous enough of Colleen's quilting magic, Karl showed me his "softer side" of manhood. His handiwork with a needle & canvas would put Roosevelt Grier to shame.

I will miss my kind, gentle, interesting, talented neighbor. We still have so much to learn about each other. RIP Karl.

Love,
Patricia Alexander

“ During this most difficult time in my life the one thing I can carry with me is the response I've had from family , friends . The comments being ... he was such a good guy for this or that and he really was . If he told you he'd do something you could count on it . But most of all he loved his family , children grandchildren and me . I was his number one ... he made sure I knew this every day of our 40 years of marriage . To say he was one of the Good Guys oh yes he was ! I will miss you every day until we say hello again , my GOOD GUY

“ It is with sadden hearts that we have to say goodbye to our beloved neighbor and friend. From the day he and Collein moved in next door, we knew we were going to love them! We pray that God will give Collein and his family peace that they will be together again one day. Karl will always live on in our hearts!!!
