“ Dear Ross and the Giles Families,

I will always remember Faye as the person who said, "Why not?" when I hesitated about something.

She was a great encourager and motivator, something I will always treasure about her.

"God cradles the sunset of each soul and treasures its beauty so deeply." - Papaha _

We will all miss her here with us, but she will be smiling down on all she knew and loved.

“ Dear Ross,

We are in Panama City right now. Ed sent us an obituary regarding Faye. We are truly sorry for your loss.

Boy she lead a very active life. We are sure that you knew that. She has been a very dear friend and we are sorry that she is gone.

Please know that you are on our prayer list and we will keep remembering you and the rest of the family.

Blessings and peace
