

Mrs. Kathryn Pittman Fain

November 7, 1943 - May 21, 2020

Kathryn Pittman Fain, 76, of Salisbury, passed away Thursday, May 21, 2020 at her residence.

Born November 7, 1943 in Iredell County, she was the daughter of the late Robert Clay Pittman and Nell Holman Pittman. After graduating from Appalachian State University, she taught for 31 years at West Rowan Middle School.

Kathy was a faithful member of First United Methodist Church where she served on numerous committees and made life-long friends through her service at her church and in the community.

Those left to cherish her memory are her husband of 51 years, Larry Fain of Salisbury; daughter, Christy Fain Anderson (Brad) of Mocksville; son, Jason Fain (Alisha) of Concord and grandchildren Kathryn Bradley Anderson, Charlotte Anderson, Chance Anderson, and Makenzie Fain. Her greatest joys in life were spending time with her family and friends. Kathy was a devoted friend and enjoyed playing Bridge, was active in the community, and loved being with other people.

A private family service will be held and officiated by Rev. Mark Conforti.

In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to First United Methodist Church, 217 S. Church Street, Salisbury, NC 28144.

“ My condolences to the Fain family. I remember when we were neighbors when the children were small. Both families eventually moved away. We would see each other occasionally, and it was always catch-up time. Our prayers are with all of you. May the Lord grant you His love, peace, and strength.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. Kathy was such a lovely person. I will miss seeing and talking to her as she walked through the neighborhood. Kathy and Larry were colleagues at West Rowan Middle, and I remember Christy and Jason as former students. My deepest sympathy. She will be missed.

“ I was so saddened to learn of the passing of Kathy. I worked with her and Larry for many years at West Rowan Jr. High. She was such a lovely, thoughtful person. The last time I saw her and Larry was at our reunion of teachers last year in Mt. Ulla. As always, she exuded grace and kindness. My deepest sympathy goes out to Larry, Christy, Jason and her grandchildren. It was always evident how much she loved her family. May God give you peace and comfort. Linda Deaver.

“ I worked with Kathy at West Rowan Jr. High , later renamed West Rowan Middle School ,for many years. She was one of the sweetest and most thoughtful teachers I ever knew. I played golf often with Larry and really enjoyed knowing them both. We lost touch through the years but I occasionally would see Kathy out shopping. She would tell me how Larry was doing and we would talk of old times for a few minutes and be on our way. I didn't know she was ill . I was so sorry to hear from another school friend of her passing. If the children would like to hear some good stories to share with their Dad, please write to me at 170 Perryman Dr. , Salisbury, NC 28147 and I will respond. I would send a card but lost the address through the years and my teaching friends did also. I would be there but I understand - we had a private service for my brother 6 years ago. God bless you and keep you, and may His face shine upon you and give you peace ! Love in Christ Jesus, Jeff Warner and wife Phyllis

Kathy was Carol's closest friend. Whenever the opportunity is right, I will tell her of Kathy's death; Carol will be heartbroken, but will quickly forget her grief, one of the very few advantages of Alzheimers. Kathy introduced me to Carol in 1969, we married in 1976, and will observe our 44th anniversary June 25. Kathy was an excellent matchmaker. I too will miss her. Garry Watkins
