“ I am verry sorry to hear of your loss. I met Ken several years ago through the AKA Wardogs online squadron. We both shared a passion for online gaming whether it be flying in the virtual skies over Europe, exploring the galaxy, and of late exploring dungeons in the Forgotten Realms. I talked Ken into getting a second character in Elite Dangerous, and he returned the favor by talking me into getting Baldur’s Gate 3. BG3 is one of the best games I’ve played to date.

It was always a blast playing with Ken, or Tennek as I knew him, and to hear him talk about Cindy and his sons. Golfing was in the mix, as well as what he was going to cook on his egg.

“ I met Ken right after I first joined the Dragons Golf Group. I had just started playing golf. Ken provided advice and humor. That was seven years back and still every time he would see me he would greet me with a smile and ask about my golf swing. Blessings to Cindy and his family.

“ We are so sorry for your loss. I met Ken while working at Verizon. He was in a different group then me so my contacts with him was mostly over the phone. When we both retired we got together more, going out to dinner. We went with our wives to Artpark to see many concerts. We would get to the park early to get good seats. I remember sitting for hours before the show roasting in the sun. Tortuous but great times. We would get together to play cards periodically. It was fun as well. I didn't care if we won or lost but Ken was very intent on winning. It was funny to see him get aggravated if he was losing. It was always a good time getting together with our wives. Thoughts and prayers to you, your family and all that loved him.

“ Cindy, Cory, and Craig,

We are so sorry to hear of Ken's passing. We spent so many celebrations together with you and Ken that we feel like you adopted us into your family. We remember meeting for the 1st time while the kids rode their tricycles and we compared contractor stories, or playing dominoes on your dining room table, building Ken's PC in the basement, running power across the street during the Oct storm, walking the dogs around the loop, finding several of Ken's zucchinis shoved in our mailbox, attending the Christmas service at your church (we think Ken just liked operating the audio, video, and lighting equipment), the annual movie marathons during the Christmas break, and more recently meeting at Luigi's to catch up when you're in town. There have been so many good times with you and Ken. We love you and send our deepest condolences and prayers to each of you and your growing family.

“ You were always a wonderful brother. We had our differences and trials but we were there for each other always. You went very quickly from this horrible cancer, but you have no more pain. I will love you always, your sister Darlene
