

Kenya Allison

April 6, 1976 - April 20, 2023

Kenya Louise Thompson Allison, forty-seven of Salisbury, NC. Kenya's peaceful transition was on April 20, 2023, at Atrium Health Carolina Medical Center, Charlotte, N.C. Born April 6, 1976, in Rowan County, NC, she was the daughter of the late Willie Lee Thompson and Ella Mae McCullough Thompson. At an early age Kenya accepted Christ and was baptized at her home church. Throughout her life, she was committed to serving others within and outside of her church family and was known to be a blessing to others. Ms. Allison was a graduate of North Rowan High School and attended Rowan Cabarrus Community College where she earned an associate degree in criminal justice. She also attended St. Augustine's University where she majored in education. She worked in social services for most of her career in Rowan County, but also worked in manufacturing for the past few years. She loved spending time with her family, friends, and her little furry child "Zena." Along with her parents, preceding her in death are brothers Mark T. Thompson, Tyrone Thompson, Pvt. Johnnie Lee Thompson, and sister Ms. Pamela Thompson.

Left to cherish her memory are brothers Darius Lee Spencer, NC, Henry T. Thompson Maryland, sister Deborah Lee Belmont, NC, and Special cousins Betty McCullough Suber (Henry) Charlotte, NC, Janie Aldridge East Spencer NC and Reba Williams Bolt Salisbury, NC, and a host of cousins and other relatives and friends residing in Greensboro, NC, Atlanta Ga. And New York. We take comfort in knowing that Kenya is now at peace surrounded by light.

Viewing visitation will start at 12:00pm on Wednesday, April 26, 2023 and services will follow at 1:00 pm in The Summersett Funeral Home Chapel, 1315 W. Innes St. Salisbury, N.C.

Memorials may be made to the American Heart Association, 128 S. Tryon Street, Suite 1588, Charlotte, NC 28202.

“ To Debbie, Dale, and the rest of the family,
Words cannot express the hurt and pain I'm feeling. Not only did I lose my god-sister/cousin, but my friend. She will be truly missed, but never forgotten. She's now reunited with her mom, grandma, and the rest of her family. Rejoice in knowing that she's resting in the arms of Jesus and not suffering. We love you, but God loved you more. Rest in Peace. Love and blessings to you all.

“ To the family of Kenya Thompson, you have my deepest sympathy in the passing of Kenya. I attended church with Kenya and also sung in the choir with her at church. I remember her as being very caring to others, a friend when I lived in Salisbury, NC, and faithful to the cause of Christ. May precious memories about Kendra linger in your hearts and minds. God continuously comforts us.
