“ I don't know the family but I did know Mr. Larry. I was his waitress at Pat and Mick's Fish House and he would come every Saturday between 4 and 5. He always spoke very highly of his family and he did not know my daughter but every week he would ask "how's that girl?" It really broke my heart to hear of his passing.....after his visit to the hospital and his time at home with iv's...the last 2 Saturday's I looked for him to brighten the door at the Fish House. He was so sincere and caring and sweet. He was so easy going and I'm so glad I got to know him. He is and will continue to to be missed. I thought an awful lot of Mr. Larry he was so special to me.##imported-begin##Michelle Smith##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathies to Jen, James, and Mike on the loss of your Dad. I've known Larry since I was 17 and never did the man not have a smile or kind word for me. I didn't see him as often as I grew older, but the few times a year that I would run into him, he always asked about me and my family. Godspeed, Larry.
