“ *Lenora was such a good friend for the short time I lived in Salisbury. We lived on Jackson Street, went to Wiley and on to Boyden and then my family moved back to Florida, but I never forgot my friend. I was blessed to spend time with her, Laurie and Joyce during a class reunion several years ago. My condolences are with the entire family, and pray you have peace knowing she's with her Lord. “ *It is with sadness learning of Lenora's death. There are many fond memories of her as a friend and classmate. While she will be missed by family and friends all of you should know that she is finally as rest.
May the Good Lord be with you all.
