“ We went to school together. Linda and Sandy, Mary and me... We were a foursome. After graduation, we went to Linda's house for a graduation party. Had a great time, said our goodby's and all went our separate ways. I lost track of Linda and Sandy but found Linda on line some years ago. She was happily married and living in NC. We talked about good times and good memories. She was a shining light in this world I will miss her.
