“ I am so sorry to read about your son. I will pray for comfort you and your family. I cant even begin to imagine your pain.

My thoughts take me to a song with the phase " For everyone who's lost someone they love long before it was their time and you feel like the days you had were not enough...Cry Out to Jesus"

May God hold you close as you try to understand the why and trust you will one day see that little boy's face again. God promises us we will have life after death. Bless you.##imported-begin##Donna##imported-end##

“ I wish I knew what to say.. I have cried a few times this week over your loss... I guess bad things to happen to good people.. it is so hard to attempt to feel the pain you all are feeling..I worked with Travis and it is hard to imagine why such a terrible thing would happen to such loving and caring person.. Just try to remember that God has his reasons for needing Logan with him and one day you shall understand those reasons and how great they are...

In our Prayers!!

“ Meagan, Travis & family--I love you all with my whole heart. Meagan, you've been my best friend since Kindergarten and I never would want you to feel one ounce of pain, much less the loss of your little Logan. I love you so much and just like in 6th grade... "I'll be your shoulder when you need someone to lean on, be your shelter when you need someone to see you through, I'll be there to carry you, I'll be there. I'll be the rock that will be strong for you, the one that will hold on to you... when you feel that rain falling down, when there's nobody else around, I'll be."

Love you all and my heart and deepest condolences are with you. Now and Forever.##imported-begin##Stephanie Raney##imported-end##

“ Tony and Family,
One can never truly understand the loss of a child until it happens. There will always be a vacancy in your heart and lives but please be aware that he is in a place that we all long to be. You were given 16 short months to watch over him but now he watches over you. Remember that 1 day in heaven is as 1000 years on earth so he won't even miss you until your with him again. You are in my thoughts and prayers.
