

Lois B. Goodman

July 18, 1925 - March 18, 2011

Lois Miles Busby Goodman, 85, passed away on Friday morning, March 18 at Rowan Regional Medical Center.

Lois was born on July 18, 1925, the youngest of eleven children, in Grove City, Pennsylvania. After her graduation from Shadyside Hospital Nursing School in Pittsburgh, Lois worked as a registered nurse at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore. There she met Trent Busby, then chief resident in obstetrics. They married in 1952 and moved to Salisbury in 1953. Lois was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church, the Symposium Book Club, the Thursday Bridge Club, and the Salisbury Country Club where she was an avid golfer.

She is pre-deceased by her husbands, Dr. Trent Busby and Enoch A. Goodman whom she married in 1992. Survivors are daughters Deborah Coclanis and Dianne Roberts, and son Miles Trent Busby. She is also survived by five grandchildren: Angelo and Alex Coclanis and Linley, Mackenzie, and Miles Busby.

Lois was a devoted wife and mother. She was also a devoted supporter of St. Johns, Rowan Regional Hospital, Meals on Wheels, and Catawba College. The family will be receiving visitors at Summersett Funeral Home on Sunday, March 20, from 5-7 PM. A celebration of her life will be held at 11:00 AM on Monday, March 21 at St. John's Lutheran Church with Rev. Rhodes Wooley and Rev. Jan Huntley officiating. The burial will be private.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to St. John's Lutheran Church, Catawba College, or Rowan Regional Hospice.

Summersett Funeral Home is serving the Goodman family. Online condolences may be made at www.summersettfuneralhome.com.
