

Lola Morrison Smith

November 5, 1924 - January 26, 2013

Lola Morrison Smith, age 88, of Salisbury passed away peacefully at home on January 26, 2013. She was born on November 5, 1924 in Wilkes County to the late William T. and Lillie Morrison.

A graduate of Jonesville High School, Lola married Buster "Buck" Smith in 1947, and they worked together in the family business, Rowan Grading and Paving. She also served as administrative assistant and bookkeeper for many years with Kent Development Corp.

A lifelong learner, she loved taking college courses at Rowan Community College following her retirement. Always willing to try something new, she also enjoyed computer classes and line dancing at the Senior Center and traveling. She took great pride and joy in her roses and orchids and was an avid gardener. She also, of course, always found time to help her many friends and family members.

Lola was a very dedicated and active member of Milford Hills Baptist Church, serving as a Deacon, Sunday school teacher, and church clerk for several years.

She was a loving wife, mother, sister, aunt, and cherished friend to many people. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Buck, and her sisters and brother, Anna Brandon, Louise Caudle, Pauline Ellis, and Elmer Morrison, all of Jonesville.

Those left to cherish her memory are her devoted son, Doug Smith of Atlanta, GA, brother-in-law John Ellis of Jonesville, NC, several nieces and nephews, their spouses, and many loving friends.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11 AM Tuesday (Jan. 29) at Milford Hills Baptist Church, Salisbury, with Dr. James P. Harris officiating. Burial will follow in Crestwood Memorial Gardens in Elkin, NC at 2:30 PM. The family will receive friends from 10-11 AM Tuesday at the church.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Lola's memory to Milford Hills Baptist Church, 1238 East Colonial Dr., Salisbury, NC 28144.
