Lorene Foster Bivins, 91, of Salisbury died Thursday, May 20, 2010 at the Laurels of Salisbury.

Born November 15, 1918 in Davie County, she was the daughter of the late Pink and Core Shoaf Foster. She was educated in the Davie County Schools and was a homemaker.

Mrs. Bivins was a member of Grace United Methodist Church, the United Methodist Women and a former member of Long Street United Methodist Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband, James Robert Bivins on April 17, 1998, a granddaughter, Lisa Faye Bivins, brother, Barley Sylvester Foster, sisters, Pinky Odessa Peninger and Mildred Codine Jordan.

Survivors include her sons, Steve F. Bivins and wife Helen, James M. "Mickey" Bivins all of Salisbury; grandchildren, Cindy McNabb, Dwayne Bivins and wife Elizabeth, Kristi Bivins, Jamie Michelle Bivins and Stephanie Bivins; and 10 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted 3:00 PM – Saturday at the Summersett Memorial Chapel with the Rev. Paul L. Burke, minister of Grace United Methodist Church officiating. Interment will follow at Rowan Memorial Park.

The family will receive friends from 2-3:00 PM Saturday at the Summersett Funeral Home.

Memorials may be made to Grace United Methodist Church, 846 Faith Rd., Salisbury, NC 28146

The family would like to express their thanks to Dr. Thompson and the entire staff at the Laurels for the love they showed to our mother and the wonderful care, love and kindness they gave her each and every day. She loved all of them dearly, and so did we. Love Helen, Steve, Mickey and Stef and Family

“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father so I can understand your pain. But Jesus gave us a hope in the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Rosemarie###imported-begin###Rosemarie###imported-end###

“ So sorry for the loss of your loved one. I hope that you find encouragement from this scripture found at Isaiah 25:8, "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken it." What a wonderful promise of a time when no one will experience death. I hope you will also find hope also in the promise of a resurrection for our loved ones that have already experienced death, John 5:28,29. Hold on to that promise and the good memories you have.###imported-begin###Tammy McCreery###imported-end###
