“ Terri:

I extend my deepest sympathy in the loss of your mother. She and I shared a lot of laughs while working together at Wachovia Bank in Concord. In that petite frame of hers, was a big heart. She used to pull me aside and give me that "motherly advice".

Oh-- I must mention that she was a sharp, sophisticated dresser, who taught me how to wear a suit.

I will always cherish these memories!###imported-begin##Audrey Brown-Mason##imported-end##
