“ To Fred's family and friends, I'm sorry to hear of his passing. I worked with him for many years at Nucor in Darlington, SC. His work ethic was impeccable. Fred loved helping people, working and getting the job done right. He enjoyed his work and worked tirelessly to make sure everything was always A . He was a kind, gentle, generous person always willing to help others and would go the extra mile to do so. Fred my life is better from knowing you. Thanks for being a wonderful coworker and friend.

“ I have had the honor of working with Fred for the last decade and he always put relationships first and you could tell he was genuinely interested in you as a person. He would gently inquire about your life then remarkably he would remember the details to see how what was important to you was going. Fred was an individual one could rely on to complete the task at hand and strived to master his environment. He exemplified the servant leader mentality in life and is someone that will be missed. Please accept my condolences in your loss.

“ I had the pleasure of working alongside Fred for the last eight years. He was always a friend first, a coworker second. He brought the human side into everything he did, was kind, considerate, and shared a sense of humor that was a good match to my own. I’m so glad that Nucor brought us both into each others lives and I’m grateful for the time I had to talk with and get to know Fred as a person. His loss leaves a void for myself and so many others. I’m sending my sincerest condolences to his friends and family during this awful time.

Fred - hope you’re finally taking the day off to yell real loud. Get yourself nice and acquainted with your neighbors in this next chapter. We love and miss you dearly!

“ From Colombia, your beloved Elena bids you her final farewell.

Today my heart is sad and broken because my dear Fred, my great love with whom I shared four years of my short life, is gone. He is gone forever. I will treasure the memory of his smile, his kindness, his great heart overflowing with so much love. He was a kind and loving person, a wonderful being. He loved his family; they were everything to him. I loved him and was with him as long as he allowed me. He was my angel, my protector here on Earth, and now you will be in Heaven. I will remember you every day because you were a great person, the best man of all. Thank you for taking care of me and my little daughter. You will be a free spirit, walking along the beach, watching the dolphins you loved so much. Finally, you will have the rest you deserve. I will love you forever, my dear and beloved Fred. I send my condolences to his family, a big hug to his mother and siblings from Colombia; my heart is with you.
