“ Sooo many memories. Our shopping adventures. Her always coming over to dye easter eggs or decorate cookies when my kiddos were little. Her never missing a beat when goofing off with all the boys. Tanning at the beach. Her rocking one the babies to sleep. How she would drop everything and come when I needed her... because I locked myself out of the house or I needed someone to watch the kiddos. Her laugh. Her lipstick. Life just was better because of her.

Our friendship started at the Lutheran Home back in 1975.. How many beds did we change? Through the laughs and tears, raising kids, road trips, weddings, child birth and funerals. Now we come to the end of living but still have all the memories. You will always be in my heart. Love you girl, for always and forever.
