“Margie was a Best Friend to my Mother, Mary Helen McCoy, over the years. Both were "Ladies" in the best sense of the word - Christian; Bible-believing; Missionary-Minded emissaries of Christ in the world. Both were part of the "Greatest Generation" of those who worked hard; believed in helping others; singing and smiling along Life's way - a TRUE example of living each day to the fullest, until age and physical issues became a daily challenge. Rest in peace, Sweet Lady, for we will truly miss your smiles and response when we brought you food (particularly Chili over the years - "Do you want some Chili, Margie?? 'YOU KNOW I DO!' " You will be sorely missed, going forward!

“Loved to see Mrs. Margie digging in her flowers, me fussing at her when she would mow her yard in the middle of the day in the summer.
