“ Aunt Marianna was a favorite aunt. Two fond memories that came to mind during her passing was (1) I always wanted a doll house & one Christmas she gave me a book that opened up into rooms with pull out furniture (I had many happy hours) (2) When I found a wedding dress, which was out of my budget, Aunt Marianna went with me to look at it. She found an exact pattern & made my beautiful dream dress with lace train. She was such a talented lady. I loved her & my Uncle Carl so much. Patti and Carl Jr., I love you, will be praying for you and your family. I understand her bittersweet passing and if I can help you in any way, let me know. Love Glenna
