“ Please accept my apologies for this late condolence post. Diane called me immediately about her aunt’s passing. Marie and my mom(Amelia Renzoni Dipollina)were first first cousins and she was the baby of the group. As grown ladies, they had so much fun playing Bunko. Marie and I had reconnected a few years ago and occasionally chatted on the phone. I will miss those calls.

“ Mark , Diane and rest of her family are in my prayers. I met Marie a couple times at Diane's. We played cards and other games. There was a lovely spirit about her. She was so full of energy and a very happy soul. I am thankful that I got to meet her. She is at rest now and I'm sure her husband was waiting with open arms when she passed.

I was so sorry to read about Marie's passing. I met her while attending a grief group from Sacred Heart and instantly fell in love with her curious, joyful spirit. She lived life to the fullest, had the most amazing energy and was a wonderful soul. Marie will never be forgotten.
