“ A wonderfully sweet lady. She was always willing to help students, whether in her regular duties or extra-curricular activities. A great, integral part of the legendary music department of the Shelby City School System of years past. Since learning of her passing I have spoken with several of her former students, and friends, who are scattered afar and they all speak of her with great admiration. It says a lot about someone to be remembered by so many with such warmth and praise. There is no doubt in my mind that she has already heard the phrase "Well done, my GOOD and FAITHFUL servant." My deepest condolences to my dear old friends Mr. Haworth, Carlin, Ann, and Brian. Kevin Lee

“ My deepest condolences to Homer, Carlin, Brian, and their families. Marjorie and Homer were legendary as music teachers in Shelby. Marjorie taught me as I came up through James Love and Cleveland School. I am so sad to hear of her passing.

“ What a wonderful lady that was a part of my musical life growing up in Shelby. I had the opportunity to be taught by her, and I taught with her. She and her husband, and of course Carlin, Ann, and Brian, were all a part of the fabric of our school and our city. I'm sure many students remember her very well and send as I do, condolences to the family. I wish each of you peace and understanding in these difficult times. Keith I. Poole
