“ Marge was an icon at Harrah's. She was there when I began working at Harrah's and it seemed as if she had always been there. If you wanted to know what was going on at Harrah's, you could always check with Marge. We had many a great times with Marge.

“ The first time I met Marge, I was impressed at the way she had treated everyone like they were family. She always made everyone around her feel like family while we were at Harrah's. Marge made sure that she was at every event to support members of her Harrah's family as well. I often think of Marge and she will always be a great part of my memories.
