“ Although we were no longer married we remained friends. I could not have asked for a more loyal husband and a great father to his children and mine. He was a hard working and dependable employee to all of his employers. Mark had a lot of long time friends and kept up with them on Facebook or visiting with them in person when he could. Mark led a simple life never wanting for much and was happy just staying home and enjoying family. We had a very good 20 years together and I will miss him so much! Rest In Peace Mark
