“ We are so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my condolences at this painful time. Losing a loved one is distressing and as comfort is needed it is my hope your family will find it comforting the promise at Isaiah 25:8 where we are assured that 'death will be swallowed up forever'. May your family find strength to endure during the days ahead.

“ Marsha was a caring neighbor whose health did not allow her to fully live life. She is now in the place where her hopes and dreams may be fulfilled.

“ Sweet, sweet Marsha. We didn't get to see each other much over the years, but I will miss you terribly! I am so thankful Jim and I were able to visit when we could. You were always so positive, no matter what trials came your way. Your heavenly homecoming must have been awesome! I can only imagine the joy you knew upon seeing Christ face- to-face, whom you loved so deeply. You will forever be an inspiration!

Billy, may God grant you and the family the peace and comfort that only He can give. May you know that many prayers are being lifted for all of Marsha's loved ones.
