“ Cousin Mot was one lady with class is how I will always remember your mother. Wish we could have visited with her every year, but after my mother fell & is not very mobile almost 4 years ago, it has been difficult taking her very far away, but at almost 106, I guess that is to be expected. Aunt Careta (mother) & Bob & I wish to extend out sincere heartfelt sympathy & blessings to you Chuck & Jane. We are so glad we got to visit with you Chuck & your dear mother 5 years ago. Our friends Donna & Wayne, who now live in Charlotte & were with us at our visit, also extends their sympathy. Please call us sometime.

“ Sometimes one may be blessed to meet a truly extraordinary and wonderful individual, I had the incredible opportunity to meet and befriend such a person in Martha Howard. She was the personification of class, beauty, and intelligence, yet, at the same time, she had this uncanny ability to be very down to Earth. She was definitely a treasure to me. I will miss her immensely. I take solace in knowing that she is now reunited with her husband Bill, who was another great friend, and her wonderful parents that I also had the privilege to meet on several occasions. Rest in peace Martha! I will always remember you.
