“ I truly believe that God puts people in our lives to make us better. Duane was that person. While we went to highschool, we became friends. Even though miles separated us, when we got back together it was if the miles and the time just melted away. Our friendship was always in the now much of the rest didn't matter. When I had my car crash, I was told he'd ask about me, and I knew he and the family was praying for my recovery. One of the first days that I could get out of the house, we went to Dalton and met another friend downtown. It was drizzling and they had to cart me around in a wheelchair. We had to cross the street, so when the walk light came on off we went. Things were good until the back tires slipped and the footrest hit the curb. Who knew wheelchairs ought to have seatbelts. I sailed out of it and it took a while to get me back in it, because all of us were laughing so hard none of us had strength to lift me back up. My sister, Jalinda passed 3 weeks ago and I am missing Duane as much. He was my brother. Prayers for Shari, Adam, Chris and Keisha. God bless.

“ Shari and Adam, Chris and Keisha, my thoughts and prayers are with you all. I remember staying at the house down on River St a long time ago and just listening to Mike and Duane go at it about some record or music that was playing. I just remember thinking I sure wish I had a brother to fight with. Love you all.

“ Prayers for Shari and Adam. May the God of Peace comfort you during your earthy loss. Praise God Duane's faith has turned to sight. My first memory of Duane was his willingness to come alongside me as a brand new Christian. He helped instill in me some very foundational truths. He always pointed to Gods Word as the final authority on all things. Another fond memory I have of Duane was his faithful example to model the love of God to his own family. He taught me that being a Christian is a life of adventure. Very grateful for his example in my life. Looking forward to seeing him again. Love you guys!

“ I started working with Duane at the bank when it was Wachovia almost 18 years ago. At one time we were sitting across from each other. I always enjoyed our conversations about anything and everything.

Duane was the person that told me about the NC Transportation Museum in Spencer in one of our talks and I decided to take my young son there before he started school. I can say that it was one of the best times that him and I both had and now that my son is 23, we both share our love for anything related to transportation. I would even go as far to say, that spark began with that visit to the Museum.

I will miss our catching up sessions when I would visit the Command Center.

My condolences go out to the family. Duane will be truly missed,

“ Duane was my Big Brother. Always full of joy, goofy, and he loved Jesus. When I was running from God, Duane always told me about Jesus. He corrected me like a Father would with compassion, love, mercy, and mild scolding..which I deserved 99% of the time. He is missed by myself and our brother Chris. Everything I know & love came from Duane and I've always given him credit for that. Thank you all for the prayers and love from our family in Calhoun, Georgia. If Duane could say anything I know what it would be..”Time’s running out, get your heart right with Jesus and invite him in because Heaven is real”. To Shari & Adam...I love you beyond measure and my prayers are forever with you.

“ First , I want to send my deepest heartfelt condolences to Shari and Adam, Chris and Keisha, during this time of grief and loss, Duane was a good friend, a good son, and if his actions from school are any indication of thean he became, he was a good father and husband. As Shari may recall Duane and I were in the same class, we were in the Science Club, the Chess Club, together I was fortunate that he called me his friend. He was quick with a joke, and even quicker to aid a friend when asked. I will miss my friend. Again my deepest condolences to the entire family.
