

Mary Frances Foster

August 15, 1927 - July 10, 2009

Mary Frances Foster, 81 of Salisbury died Friday, July 10, 2009 at Rowan Regional Medical Center.

Born August 15, 1927 in Salisbury, she was the daughter of the late Troy T. and Eva Swicegood Foster.

She was educated in the Salisbury schools and graduated from Granite Quarry High School. She received her Bachelor's Degree from Catawba College and her Masters Degree in Education from the University of Virginia of Charlottesville.

Miss Foster was a First Grade Teacher and taught over 1000 children to read. She taught in North Carolina for 3 years, Maryland for 2 years and for the Prince William County, Virginia school system for 26 years before retiring.

She attended Calvary Baptist Tabernacle and was an avid quilter.

Survivors include her sister Juanita Lesley of Cary; nieces, Anne Bradner and husband Jim of St. Augustine, FL, Cynthia DeLuca and husband Francis of Cary; great-nieces, Lesley Bradner of Alexandria, VA, Courtney Shaver of Wilmington and Bryn DeLuca of Mooresville.

A Celebration of the Life of Miss Foster will be conducted 2:00 PM – Monday at Summersett Memorial Chapel with the Rev. Steve Holshouser, minister of Calvary Baptist Tabernacle. Interment will follow at Rowan Memorial Park.

The family will receive friends from 7-9:00 PM Sunday at Summersett Funeral Home.

Memorials may be made to Tabernacle Baptist Tabernacle, 3760 Stokes Ferry Road, Salisbury, NC 28146