

Mary Glover Aycoth

February 7, 1920 - April 15, 2012

Mary Glover Aycoth, 92, of Salisbury, went to be with her Lord and Savior on Sunday, April 15, 2012 following several months of illness.

Born February 7, 1920 in Rowan County, Mrs. Aycoth was a loving daughter to Charles Cuthrell Glover and Madie Bruce Glover. She was the last remaining sibling of four brothers and three sisters.

Mrs. Aycoth was a life-long member of Bethel Lutheran Church where she was a devoted choir member, adult Sunday school teacher and former president of the Lutheran Church Women (LCW) missionary program, and was awarded Life Membership from the "Lutheran Theological Seminary Auxiliary" due to her many devoted years of volunteer work for the church.

A 1937 graduate of China Grove High School where she was a cheerleader, basketball and baseball player, and honor graduate.

She married her late husband, Barney Lee Aycoth, on August 10, 1940. Soon after marriage and in support of the war effort, she traveled with her husband to Baltimore, Maryland where she worked as a spot welder and riveter on B-26 and A-22 bomber aircraft at the Glen L. Martin Aircraft Corporation during WWII. After the war, she and her husband returned to Salisbury where she began cosmetology courses. After graduating from the Norfolk School of Beauty Culture and the Lu Carnes School of Beauty, she opened and operated Aycoth Beauty Salon in Salisbury for 25 years. A strong advocate of higher education, she attended Catawba College and the University of Miami in pursuit of her college degree. She was also a licensed N.C. Real Estate Broker. Her love of history and traveling allowed her to visit historic areas all around the world.

Her many civic duties and volunteer work included membership and past president (1985-86) of the Enon Extension Homemakers Club, member of the Agricultural Extension Services Advisory Board, and served as founder/chorus coordinator of the Extension Homemakers Chorus in Rowan County for 13 years. She devoted numerous volunteer hours for Rowan Helping Ministries, Bloodmobile, Salisbury VA Medical Center, and the Salisbury "Singing Seniors Chorus."

Mrs. Aycoth was preceded in death by her husband Barney Lee Aycoth on June 15, 2003, four brothers Robert L. Glover, Charles H. Glover, Francis C. Glover and Paul C. Glover, and three sisters Sadie G. Peeler, Catherine G. Miller and Cleo "Sue" G. Browning.

Surviving are her two loving sons and daughters-in-law Ronald B. Aycoth and wife Sandra of Winston-Salem, David L. Aycoth and wife Carol of Salisbury, three grandchildren Dustin Lee Aycoth of the US Army, San Antonio, TX and wife, Lisa, Jason Lee Aycoth of Greensboro, and Bryan Lee Aycoth of Salisbury, and one great grandson, Jack Nolan Aycoth, one sister-in-law, Elizabeth "Lib" Glover of Raleigh and many other nieces and nephews and their families.

The family will receive friends from 3-4 PM Tuesday at Bethel Lutheran Church Fellowship Hall. Funeral services will be conducted 4:00 PM – Tuesday (Apr. 17) at the church with the Rev. Carroll Robinson, officiating. Interment will follow at Rowan Memorial Park.

Memorials may be made to Bethel Lutheran Church, 355 E. Ridge Rd., Salisbury, NC 28144

Very special thanks to her wonderful care givers, the Lutheran Home, Rowan Hospice and Palliative Care, and her loving and caring physician, Dr. Donna Childress

Tribute Wall

“ ##imported-begin##Dallas Pridgen Jr##imported-end##

April 17, 2012 at 06:47 AM

“ Ron, we are so sorry to hear about your Mom. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. It's hard to lose someone you love, but she's with the Lord now and is safe, well and happy.##imported-begin##Ralph and Jan Miller##imported-end##

April 16, 2012 at 03:57 PM

“ *Ron,
Sorry, for your loss. May the Lord give you extra strength during this hard time.
Much sympathy,
Bill and Nancy Hylton##imported-begin##Bill and Nancy Hylton##imported-end##*

April 16, 2012 at 10:30 AM