“ Just read todays paper and it is with such sadness to here this. Mary (Cookie) as we all in the Franklin community knew her was such an adorable person to be around. It didnt matter where you saw her or what she was doing, she always had the time to say "Hello" and speak to you. There have been a lot of good memories even back to Mrs. Molnar when we as friends, Nancy & myself, Carolyn, Jack, Bill, all got together and sat out around the street light or got together for a meal. Cookie was always there to make us all feel welcome. My deepest sympathy goes out to all the Family & pray that God will give each of you the strength & support needed during this time of loss. RIP, Jim Hartline
