

Mrs. Mary Frances Glover Daniel

April 16, 2013

Mary Frances Glover Daniel, 90 on April 9, found peace on April 16, 2013, and passed into the loving arms of all of her family and friends who awaited her.

Married for 41 years, she and her husband, Thomas Lewis Daniel, had two children, Larry Scott Daniel and Mary Lewellen Daniel Padgett. Mary Frances was so proud that her children had happy, long standing and supportive loves in Jean and Clyde, to nurture her three treasured grandchildren: Christopher Scott Daniel, (Amy;) Tiffany Alexis McGough Short, (David;) and Thomas Preston Daniel, (Joy.) She loved dearly her eight great grandchildren.

Tuckahoe Presbyterian Church on Park Avenue in Richmond, Virginia was the family church for many years.

Mary Frances, known by all who cared for her as a "great Southern lady," was creative, world traveled, sharp witted, politically conscious, beautiful to the very end, and always had a thoughtful word for others. Her decorating talents made each of the family owned Daniel's Wayside Furniture stores as lovely as their family homes.

A memorial service is planned for May 11, 2013, at Woody Funeral Home, 1020 Huguenot Road, Richmond, Virginia, 11 a.m.

A special note of gratitude is extended by her daughter, to all of her caregivers for the past six years at Sunrise at Bon Air, the Carillon of Salisbury, and Rowan Memorial Hospital in Salisbury, N C. Everyone who cared for her came to love her. She will be deeply missed.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Family Crisis Council of Rowan County, North Carolina, or any Domestic Violence organization of choice.
