

Mildred Powell

February 10, 2023

Mildred Powell, known for her sense of humor, love of gardening and willingness to help anybody who needed it, passed away February 10, 2023. The Spencer resident was 92. A Georgia native, her husband, James T. Powell, passed away in 2007, her mother, Martha White, in 1993. Her son, Robert, survives her. Mildred enjoyed her Methodist church, Trinity Wesleyan of Salisbury, for which she frequently made baked goods. She gardened in the backyard and spread the bounty with neighbors and friends and loved canning which she also shared. She was an avid newspaper reader and follower of current affairs. Her belief in justice and fairness was strong and she practiced the Golden Rule.
