

Mildred Stutts West

July 26, 1922 - October 30, 2012

Mildred Stutts West, of Salisbury, died Tuesday, October 30, 2012.

Born July 26, 1922, in Rowan County, Mrs. West was the third daughter of the late Alma Leach and Herman Dewey Stutts. She was preceded in death by her husband, Malcom (Max) Smith West, and three sisters: Edna Shuping and Nell Lyerly of Salisbury and Jewel Walton of Spencer.

She is survived by two nephews, George M. Walton (Shirley) of Belmont and Michael H. Shuping (Marilyn) of Winston-Salem; two nieces, Mitzi S. Ross (Daniel) of Washington, DC and Dinah W. Southard (Terrell) of Rock Hill, SC; a great niece Lisa Mays of Salisbury and other great nieces, nephews and their families.

Mrs. West felt very strongly that her body should be useful after death and had hoped for donation of her body to medical research at Duke University. Her wishes for this donation are her legacy as a caring individual in life.
