“ Remember all special times you and I spent together even when I worked 2nd. Shift at same place baby boy worked at. Also Hee Haw, Country music in kitchen on radio. When me and you and Dad went to see Ralph and Velma at there house on Thanksgiving. So so many good times to many to list family reunions the trailer and just hangin out on porch. Talkin on phone. And Christmas Eve with rest of Wells's. Sure have a lot of never forgotten memories. Love you more than words can express. Love your Ricky as you called me love, Rick

Grandma Wells is on the other side with my sweetheart Flo Wells and my brother James Wells , and Grandpa Wells and all my other relatives and friends that have passed before me . I love ,cherish and miss you all even the ones I never met. Psalms 37:4 as Lisa tells everyone. God Bless the entire family at such a sad time but we all know where Grandma is and will be there when it's our turn. God is Good all the time, everyday. Trust and believe him always. He will not let you down.

“ Mamaw Wells will be celebrating (Grand)parents Day in heaven and I cannot help but think she was watching the girls in the Peter Pan Jr. play today. She was a wonderful role model and persevered through so much over the years and had a delightful sense of humor. I feel sure that she was greeted with the words "Well done."

“ Mama, I know you are at peace, no more pain. You fought hard until the very end. I am glad everyone you loved got to tell you goodbye and they love you. You will surely be missed. But we will all see you some day. God Bless You Mama. You were a good mom. All of the loved ones there with you are missed and we will see you all soon.
