“ Gayle and I grew up beside each other in Franklin. I remember for her 16th birthday the Pickett's bought her a little red Renault and we "dragged" Main Street in Salisbury on weekends. What memories we shared. I have tried to get in touch with her but the phone number I had had been disconnected. I talked with her after the article in the Salisbury Post about an Open House for her Doll Collection and Harold's Can Collection. I would love to talk with Harold if he will contact me.
