

Nancy Frazier Erb

December 27, 1920 - January 1, 2011

Mrs. Nancy Frazier Erb of Salisbury died Saturday, New Year's Day, 2011 at Rowan Regional Medical Center.

Born December 27, 1920 in Winston-Salem, NC, Nancy was the daughter of John W. and Adelaide K. Frazier. A graduate and ardent supporter of Catawba College, she was also a member of the Home Moravian Church in Winston-Salem.

Nancy was a long time volunteer in her community. She loved playing golf, connecting with her friends, hosting her bridge and book clubs and completing her daily crossword puzzles.

Nancy was proud to be the last surviving member of her 12 Frazier siblings. Her family, originally anchored in NC, has spread across the US from New York to Chicago, Cleveland, Atlanta, San Francisco and Portland. Gathering generations together over good food and rich stories was her joy every summer and Thanksgiving for over 50 years. As unofficial matriarch she kept track of us, she kept us connected and she kept us in line.

Nancy is predeceased by the love of her life, Dr. Norris S. Erb and by her devoted dog, Angus. She is survived by her three sons, Don (Debbie), Mike, (Stacy), and Chris (Jeanette); her grandchildren Karen, Sara, Marcus (Christine), Allison, Eowyn (Bryan), Elizabeth, and Kevin; and her great-grandchildren, Michael, Owen, and Audrey; and even more daughters-in-law, nieces and nephews to many of whom she was a “second Mom”.

A private graveside memorial service will be at the Home Moravian Church in Winston-Salem. The family will welcome friends to visit at her home from 4pm to 7 pm on Wednesday, January 5th, 2011.

In lieu of flowers it is requested that donations be made to the Boys Home in Lake Waccamau or a charity of choice.

Summersett Funeral Home is serving the Erb family. Online condolences may be made at www.summersettfuneralhome.com.

Tribute Wall

“ It has been a pleasure working for your mother these last few years. She will truly be missed.##imported-begin##Craig & Donna McCoy##imported-end##

---

January 05, 2011 at 03:33 PM

“ *May your heart be filled with not sadness but the joys that was given each and every day that Nancy shared on a daily basis. Sending our condolences with love.
Scott,Anna and
Sarah##imported-begin##Scott Delcamp/ Anna & Sarah
Bocook##imported-end##*

---

January 04, 2011 at 09:29 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolence for your loss. Losing a loved one at any age is hard and the time spent with them always feels so short. The pain, grief and feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable at such times, we can go to God's Word for comfort. The Bible helps us to understand how Almighty God and Jesus feel about death, and how his promise for our loved ones who passed away will soon become a reality here on earth. See these scriptures at Isaiah 25:8; Psalm 37:11,29. May you find hope and comfort in the many promises from God along with your cherished memories.##imported-begin##Tammy McCreery##imported-end##

---

January 04, 2011 at 08:53 AM