“ My late wife was Nancy's sister Bonnie and I always thought of Nancy as my little sister. She and Jerry essentially moved me into my house in Asheville after Bonnie died in 2008. They were frequently celebrants of family occasions and holidays in that house over the intervening years. Nancy will be missed by me and my family.

“ Our earthly bodies grow beautifully, then wither and die, but our spirits are not touched by death. Nancy lived the Fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23). She was a Christian inspiration to many with her quiet humility, faithfulness, love, knowledge, and compassion. She will be greatly missed at First Baptist. Our loss is heaven's gain.
