

Nancy Wright-Leek

August 23, 1951 - February 18, 2022

Nancy Wright-Leek, 70 of Stanfield, passed away Friday, February 18, 2022 at her home surrounded by her family. She was dearly loved and will be deeply missed.

Born August 23, 1951 in Mooresville, she was the daughter of the late Mina McLean Cockrell and Wilbur Wayne Wright.

Mrs. Wright-Leek was employed by IBM for 30 years before retiring and was employed part-time at the YMCA in Stanfield.

She attended New Life Church in Locust and Encounter Christ Church of Red Cross.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a brother, David Wright.

Those left to cherish her memory are her husband of 19 years, Clive Leek; son, Galen Ledbetter and wife Melissa of Mount Holly; brothers, Edward Wright and wife Bonnie, and Glenn Wright and wife Paulette all of Mooresville; sister, Kay Lemmond of South Carolina; sister-in-law, Pam Wright of Mt. Ulla; grandchildren, Noah Ledbetter and Haleigh Ledbetter.

The family will receive friends from 11 AM – 12 Noon Wednesday (Feb. 23) at Summersett Funeral Home, Salisbury.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that memorials be made to Hospice and Palliative Care of Cabarrus County, 5003 Hospice Lane, Kannapolis, NC 28081 or Levine Cancer Institute, 100 Medical Park Drive Northeast, #110, Concord, NC 28025.

“ I only knew Nancy for a short while through the YMCA senior center, but the one thing that stood out about Nancy other than her beautiful face, was her kind personality and her thoughtfulness towards others. She will be greatly missed!!!

“ Nancy was such a beautiful soul. I worked with her at BGEA and got to know her and came to love her. She was truly one of the kindest, most thoughtful people I've ever known. My heart is so heavy knowing that she's gone, but also rejoicing because I know she's with the Lord. I won't say good-bye to her. I'll say, Until we meet again.
