“ I have never met Noah or his family. I however was driving on the road that same evening during the accident and was saddened to learn that he didn't make it. From what I have read and from the testimonies of his family and friends, he seemed like a kind and caring person. I want to express my most sincere condolences and I pray that his memory stays alive through those that loved him. Please keep your family close and I know it will be hard, but stay strong in faith. He was called home and may you and he find everlasting peace. I'll pray for your family.
