“ Aunt Norma was one of the kindest people in the world. Our family spent many summer vacations visiting with her at her house...we have some of the best memories from those times. Norma always made everyone feel at home...she wil be missed a great deal.

“ She was the most wonderful lady I had the pleasure of knowing. My dad and her were 1st cousins and he talked about her a lot. I loved the reunions and the cakes she made. She also watched my children after school. She will be missed. Love and blessing to the family. She has joined many others that have gone before her.
