“ Buddy was always a friend, always kind and helpful, going the extra mile with that distinctive smile he had. A loving father to his children and a down to earth Christian example worthy of emulation. His passing brings to mind Sam Walter Foss's poem, "House By The Side Of The Road." Of which the second stanza goes:

*I see from my house
by the side of the road,
By the side of the highway of life,
The men who press with the ardor of hope,
The men who are faint with the strife.
But I turn not away from their smiles nor their tears-
Both parts of an infinite plan;-
Let me live in my house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.*

Thanks to God for giving me the privilege of knowing him.

“ Dear Sue, Dana and Family, I am so very sorry to hear of Buddy's passing. He was such a sweet man. He was always so wonderful to me when I worked at the church and he loved to talk to me about the ministry to West Virginia because he knew I was born and raised there. He was such a Godly example for all of us! My prayers of peace and comfort are with all of you during this difficult time. Rebecca “ I'm so sorry for your loss, but what a wonderful thing to know he's in his heavenly home. We remember when we were at the hospital with our mother (mother-in-law) Carolyn Fesperman. Our daughter, Daisy (who was a small child at the time) stayed with Buddy and Sue in the lobby. Daisy talked them into buying her a Dr. Pepper. It was her first Dr. Pepper and Buddy was thrilled to see her so happy drinking it! He will be missed by many.
