

Pamela Allen Cordts

October 28, 1948 - March 26, 2020

Pamela Jane Allen Cordts, 71, of Salisbury, passed away Thursday, March 26, 2020 at Novant Health Rowan Regional Medical Center.

Born in Decatur, Illinois on October 28, 1948 she was a daughter of the late Robert D. Allen and the late Norma Jean Allen Boyd. She was a graduate of Eisenhower High School and attended Olivet Nazarene College and RCCC to receive her certification in Industrial Management and Professional Human Resource Management. She was an Employee Relations Manager at HBD Industries (BFGoodrich) and then Human Resource & Safety Manager at W. A. Brown & Son, Inc. until retirement.

She married her husband of 52 years, Larry A. Cordts on June 11, 1967. Had 3 children- the late Robert Christopher Cordts, Andrea Cordts-Bassinger (Kelly) of Salisbury, Nicole Cordts Jacques (Mathieu) and grandchildren Sacha Jolie and Sophie Jane of Mooresville.

Her professional interests included : Rowan County Human Resource Association Past-President and current member, Centralina Workforce Development Board Member, Southern Piedmont Safety Council Vice Chair, Professional Woman's Group (LLAN), Advisory Committee Member at RCCC, Member of First United Methodist Church, served on Staff Parish Relations Committee, Worship and Music Committee. She was a member of the Chancel Choir and Carolina Artist Guild. She volunteered at Meals on Wheels and a Mentor at Isenberg Elementary School.

She loved her family and friends, enjoyed singing, painting and traveling. Pam was an inspiration to all who knew her. She was a loving wife, mother, “NaNo” and friend. She lived her life with grace, dignity and an unshakeable faith. She raised her family with love, strength, and compassion, and always instilled in us that family is first and foremost in life. We miss her so very much, but our memories of her will live in our hearts forever, and we know that we all have a very special guardian angel!

There will be a private memorial at her home due to COVID-19 on Monday March 30, 2020.

In lieu of memorials please send to First United Methodist Church Operating Funds at 217 South Church Street Salisbury, NC 28144.

Summersett Funeral Home is serving the Cordts family. Online condolences may be made at www.summersettfuneralhome.com.

“ I was sorry to see of Pam's passing. Prayers of comfort for the family. I worked at Carolina Rubber Hose back in the 70's and knew Pam as a very helpful HR person. While I wasn't always the easiest employee to deal with, Pam always worked with me with patience and kindness. I will always remember her that way.

“ Pam was an incredible source of support, wisdom, and love during my tenure as Director of Music at First United Methodist Church of Salisbury. Below are wonderful memories of her involvement in the choir, including visits to sing in New York's Saint Thomas Church Fifth Avenue; a conversation with her dear friend, Kay McCartney; and a five course meal with members of the Chancel Choir at the Country Club of Salisbury. May Pam rest in peace and rise in glory. Matthew Michael Brown (Atlanta, GA)
