“ Mom Kline were the best mother-in-law anyone could ever ask for. She was someone you could always talk to about anything. Mom, Dad Kline, Bill and I have spent many hours sitting around the dinning table playing Ponytail. She loved cooking. I would turn my kitchen over to her while she was visiting. She loved going to a polish meat market and getting things that you could not get in a regular grocery store and taking it home and cooking it (Kiska). She loved shopping. I miss her so much. R.I.P. Mom.

“ She was more of a "Mom" to me than what my own mom was with me ... Had some bad times but there were more good times to push the bad ones away ... Learned things from her thru the years and I hope and pray I'm teaching my grandkids everything she taught me. She did love to cook and made sure you did not go home hungry ... She loved playing cards and I remember one day we had 12 people around her and dad's kitchen table playing Ponytail. I think it took us about 2 hrs. for us to get thru one hand. 🍀 Love you mom R.I.P. 💕

“ I met Pat from her daughter Bonnie who is a great friend of mine. I absolutely adored Pat. She was always happy to see me, complimented me on my clothes, (made me so happy) and so kind. She had such a beautiful soul and she loved her family very much. Pat is one of the great ones and will be thoroughly missed! May she dance with the Angels!
