“ I'm sorry for your loss. I see the pain my mother feels over the loss of her husband (my father) of 60 years so I can understand your pain. But Jesus gave us a hope based in the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scripture as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 121:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. “ Roger & Family...
There are many wonderful memories of Penny. A beautiful classy lady and friend who was a joy to work with, always positive, always smiling, decorating her home and lending a hand to help anyone. Her family and friends were her life. One of the fondest memories was your 25th wedding anniversary renewal of vows and all the planning. Many of us have lost a great friend but will always remember her with a smile on our faces.
Many thoughts are with you!

“ Uncle Roger, Shannon, and Lora,
I am so sorry I couldn't be there for you, but I was there in my heart and in prayer. Aunt Penny always lived her life getting the most of every minute of the day. Her laugh was contagious. I know there is a huge void in your heart right now, but hopefully the good memories will soon help to heal that pain. We love you all and keep you in our prayers.

“ Roger, my heart just breaks at the thought of Penny being gone. Even after all these years I can't think of my childhood and teen years without thinking of her. She was my first and best friend. We were inseparable - we traded dolls, clothes, and secrets. We played, laughed, and cried together as we grew to adulthood. I'm sure we spent more time together than we did with our own families during those years. Even as I write this, it brings back so many wonderful memories that I realize Penny will always be a part of who I am. I pray that God will comfort you and your family as you say goodbye to her. I also pray that beautiful memories of her will always give you joy.##imported-begin##Sparkle Bland##imported-end##

I was so sad when I got the call from Mom this evening about Penny. She was such a special lady and I know how much she meant to so many people. I'll miss her-especially her laugh and smile! You're in our thoughts and prayers.
