“ My memories of Pete Leone, and his dearly departed wife Ann, were all good ones. His smirk but kind smile was infectious. He always asked questions about me, asking how I was doing, etc. I met them as a salesman at Trexler Bros. men's clothing store. Pete & his wife were two of my most favorite & dearest customers. I so enjoyed not only serving them, but also spending time with them. I do hope Pete's later years were happy ones, as I know he greatly missed the companionship & love of his wife. Now, hopefully, they are together again in heaven, in the presence of Christ his Savior.
