“Phil was a wonderful, kind and helpful man. Knew him as Butch's father during school, but knew him better from working with him at American Moistening Company and then banking with him at the Northwestern Bank in Cleveland. He always had a kind word and a smile on his face. I had lost touch with him and not seen him for years but he was one of my favorite people 40 years ago. I am sure he will be missed by friends in the Cleveland area and by his family. Butch I send you my condolences and I am praying for the family to let God help you through this difficult time.
