“ We were delighted reading about Phil’s remarkable life. What a rich journey - from Brooklyn to broadcast booths across North Carolina, serving his country with honor, bringing sports and community events to life over the airwaves, and giving so generously to civic causes. You can feel the warmth of a man who loved connecting people, whether through radio, youth baseball at Cooperstown, or 54 years of marriage to Karen. My wife Adriana and I were fortunate to meet Phillip through David, and his legacy clearly lives on in his children. Thank you for sharing his story.
