

Philippa Paulin Johnson

January 1, 2011

Victoria Philippa Paulin Johnson died peacefully and entered her Heavenly home on New Year's Day, January 1, 2011 in Salisbury, North Carolina.

She now joins her many family members who have gone on ahead - her mother Emma Virginia Swartz Paulin, her father Victor Philippe Paulin, her sisters Gwendolyn Paulin and Rosalie Paulin Gottschall, and her beloved grandparents, who all made her early years happy in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. She will also be reunited with her dear husband Fred Hannah Johnson, for whom she moved to Atlanta to be a loving wife and mother.

Her two daughters, Virginia Philippa Johnson Braswell of Owensboro, Kentucky, and Anne Hannah Johnson Palmer of Salisbury, North Carolina cherish their many memories of a loving, encouraging mother. Her strong Christian faith and brave, uncompromising standards have been passed down to the next generation: Virginia's children Joyce Anne Braswell Porter, David J. Braswell, Beth Braswell Leahey, Kathy Braswell Swenson, and Anne's children Richard A. Palmer and Katherine Palmer Frost – and they continue on to her nine great-grandchildren. "And her children will rise up and call her blessed." We will miss you, Mommy.

A memorial service is planned for January 8, 2011 at Peachtree Christian Church in Atlanta. Memorials may be made to Peachtree Christian Church,

1580 Peachtree Street NW, Atlanta GA 30309 or to the Billy Graham
Evangelistic Association, 1 Billy Graham Parkway, Charlotte NC 28201.
